Brushing and combing my hair.

People use a comb or brush to help their hair stay neat and tidy.

I need to brush my hair everyday to keep my hair tidy and tangle-free.

I should brush or comb my hair every morning before I go to school.

Brushing or combing
my hair.

Mum or dad can
brush my hair
Or
I can brush my hair.

I brush it slowly and gently.

I brush the front of my hair, then the back of my hair and
then each side.

When I wash my hair
And my hair is wet
and tangled.

I will dry my hair
with a towel or hairdryer

And then I can comb
or brush out the tangles.

When I brush or comb my hair it looks nice.

Some times my hair will stay neat and tidy all day.

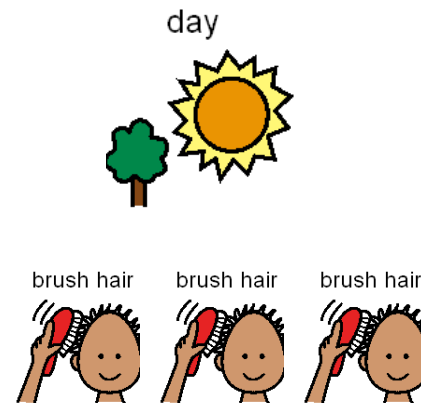

But sometimes my hair will become tangled and messy and then I need to brush or comb it again

Sometimes it's hard to keep my hair tidy, and I need to comb or brush it many times in a day.

I can check my hair in a mirror to see if I need to comb or brush it.

If my hair is messy,
I will gently comb or brush it.

If I feel a tangle in my hair I will gently
comb it out or ask an adult to help.

I shouldn't pull hard
with the comb or brush.
Pulling hard may hurt
and it could pull out
some hair

I should comb or brush my hair gently.
